

Accommodation

A delightful period home, revealing a spacious and well presented interior, having been modernised and much improved in recent years. The property offers a lovely setting, whilst also benefitting from a substantial garage and outbuilding, all adding to houses obvious appeal.

The property reveals spacious two bedroom accommodation, ideal for a range of purchasers and ready to move into. The garage and outbuilding have been converted to create a multi functional space, sure to suit a number of uses and undoubtedly a great addition. The loft space also offers great potential for conversion, subject to necessary permissions and consents.

Located in the highly desirable village of Dishforth, the house offers ease of access to local transport links, including the A1(M) and A19, whilst also being a short drive from both Thirsk and Ripon. Dishforth itself boasts a number of amenities, including a public house, primary school, and village hall.

On the ground floor, the main entrance door leads into the hallway, with stairs rising to the first floor. There is a good size living room and a stylish kitchen/diner, with understairs storage and coming fitted with an extensive range of modern units. The utility completes the downstairs layout, offering handy storage and space and plumbing for a washing machine, whilst also housing the gas central heating radiator. To the first floor there is a landing, large main bedroom which is flooded with light through two windows, second bedroom with loft access and the modern part tiled house bathroom, fitted with a white suite, including a bath with glazed screen and shower over.

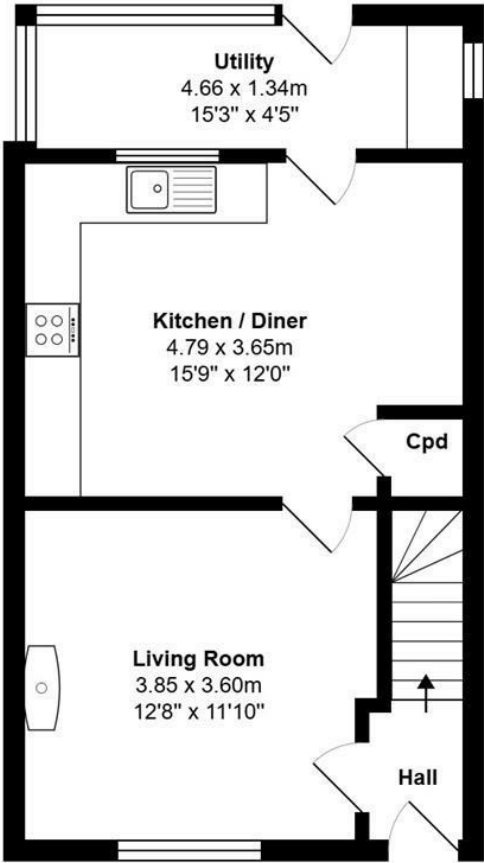

Externally, there is a traditional garden to the front of the house, whilst a low maintenance courtyard garden to the rear, offers additional outside space and gives access to the outbuilding. Vehicle access is available to the side of the terrace, leading through double doors to the garage. The garage/outbuilding has power and light, making it ideal for a number of uses.

Properties of this quality are rare to market in this price bracket, especially in such a sought after village and an early viewing is advised on this fabulous home, which is offered for sale with no onward chain.
